Turner Talking

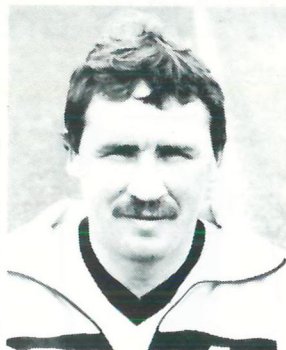

Good evening and a warm welcome to the Players and Directors of Bolton Wanderers.

Tonights opponents Bolton are a club like ourselves who have had a disastrous run from the Second to the Fourth Division, but unlike ourselves are poised to return to the Third. When we played Bolton away it was one of the best games I have seen for a long time and I hope tonights fixture is just as good, but the result in our favour.

The most talked about football team in Cambridge at the moment is not United but the Cambridge Schools team who have reached the final of the English Schools Association. After a marvellous performance at Liverpool they must now overcome West London in a two legged final to give the trophy to Cambridge for the first time. The first game will be away at Fulham and the result not known before these notes are written. The second leg is here at the Abbey Stadium on May 4th — 7.30 p.m. kick off and whatever the result of the first leg, if everybody comes and gets behind the lads I am sure a victory is more than possible. My only worry is that Richard Smith — their manager survives the next seven days because what with his team and the local elections at the same time, he doesn't know his 'bleep bleep' from his 'elbow', I just hope the pair of us are cracking a bottle of champagne next Wednesday night.

I wish them luck.

Thanks for your support.

Saggers Snippets

It was wonderful to meet old friends at Fenners on the opening day of the cricket season. It poured with rain, but somehow that was better in a way, it gave us time to reflect on Englands winter tour, the prospect of the West Indies, this summer, a new look county championship, and Botham, Gooch, Gower and Co. back in full cry.

Still watching the roller mop squeeze excess water from the covers game gave me the feel that summer had really amued.

Australian pools and the European Soccer Championship just around the corner. The prospect of improving my cover drive, so that the ball reaches the boundary, the unending discussions on how Chris Turner never dropped a catch in a competitive match and how the nearest Reg Smart will get to reaching a century is by living that long.

Such stuff are summer dreams made of, don't tell the bookies but I'm going to have a few bob on United getting promotion next season too. It has been a hard old winter in many ways, but with legs and lungs refreshed in June and July I have a sneaking feeling we are in for a good 'un next year at the Abbey.

I'd just like to thank the players for the ups and downs this year which give all the supporters something to talk about.

Football in England SHILTON EQUALS ALL TIME RECORD

It is, perhaps, fitting that one of England's best ever goalkeepers should, this centenary season, set up a new all-time record number of appearances in the competition. But can Peter Shilton save Derby from suffering immediate relegation?

Peter made his 824th League appearance against Southampton — one of his previous clubs — last Saturday, thus equalling the record established by former Saints' favourite Terry Paine, who completed his playing days with Hereford United. Though Shilton celebrated with a clean sheet as Derby won 2-0, it was a bit of a hollow victory even though the three points were invaluable. Southampton manager Chris Nicholl stormed 'we were useless, too many of our players simply strolled through the game and were prepared to hand Derby an easy victory.' Derby manager Arthur Cox would undoubtedly welcome a few more opponents in Southampton's mood. For this was only the Rams' second win in seven League matches and, though they seem likely to miss the two certain relegation places, they are still in grave danger of having to endure the play-offs. It is still possible that both the clubs promoted from the Second Division last season — Portsmouth and Derby — could make a swift return to the lower section.

Portsmouth went behind after 31 minutes at Fratton Park when Norwich defender Andy Linighan scored. But they recovered splendidly with goals from Mick Quinn and Paul Mariner to turn the game their way. With Pompey 60 seconds from victory, the referee awarded a penalty against them though Paul Mariner vehemently denied that he had handled. Wayne Biggins duly guided the ball home to scramble a point for Norwich who are also in danger of having to take part in the play-offs. So Portsmouth now really need to win all of their three remaining games to have any chance of staying up.

It now looks certain that the drama to avoid the play-offs will continue until the last kick of the season. Charlton's revival continued as two early goals from Garth Crooks gave them victory over Newcastle at Selhurst Park.

Manchester United have different sorts of problems. Manager Alex Ferguson will certainly be satisfied with nothing less than one point from their final away game of the season at Oxford tomorrow. United's final three matches are all at Old Trafford and, although they have won all of their last five home matches, the tension will be on them as they strive to achieve runners up position. Brian McClair — who has emulated what no United player has achieved in 20 years since George Best managed to score as many as 20 League goals in a season. McClair, who has enjoyed a fabulous first season at Old Trafford, will be hoping to add to his tally at The Manor!

But, as United pay tribute to a player who has matched George Best, Newcastle United fans are claiming that their new discovery Michael O'Neill will one day be hailed as an even greater Irish player than the former United star. O'Neill was only 18 when Newcastle signed him from Coleraine in November for an initial payment of £40,000. But has made remarkable progress at St. James Park, recently completing a bout of scoring which produced eight goals in five First Division games.

As Liverpool duly wrapped up their 17th League Championship by defeating Tottenham 1-0 at Anfield last weekend, several rival clubs were already well advanced in their plans to end Liverpool's dominance next season. Manchester United are probably now the favourites to do just that, though Everton and Arsenal must come into the reckoning. United may have to satisfy themselves with runners-up spot this term, but their form suggests that with, possibly two new signings, they could challenge Liverpool seriously next season. The loss of Norman Whiteside will be a major blow, of course, but Mr. Ferguson would be left with a considerable sum to invest in the new men he wants. A year ago it was felt that the loss of Ian Rush might end Liverpool's reign at the top. But, as things have turned out, the Reds have fared even better without the Welsh international! United, who have not won the Championship since 1967, must have a real chance next year. After that the Old Trafford club will lift its sights towards the European Cup. They were, after all, the first English club to win Europe's top prize in 1968.

LOOKING BACK

5 Years Ago:

Robbie Cooke's 25th minute goal was sufficient to give us victory over Newcastle in our Second Division game at The Abbey Stadium. Bolton played a goalless draw at Leicester in Division Three.

Watford came from behind to beat Arsenal 2-1 at Vicarage Road and establish themselves firmly in second place in the First Division. After Brian McDermott has edged the Gunners in front, John Barnes and Luther Blissett (penalty) scored to bring victory to Watford. With third placed Manchester United being held to 1-1 at Norwich, Watford opened up a three point lead on the Old Trafford club. Goals from Ian Wallace and Peter Davenport gave Nottingham Forest a 2-1 win at Manchester City.

Wimbledon took over the leadership of the Fourth Division with a 2-0 win at Crewe.

10 Years Ago:

Our chances of consolidating our second position in Division Three looked glum as former Cambridge player Keith Bowker gave Exeter the lead in the 64th minute at The Abbey Stadium. But Tom Finney and Steve Fallon both scored to give us a 2-1 victory. Bolton remained top of the Second Division in spite of being held at home to a goalless draw by Fulham.

Nottingham Forest, already assured of their first League Championship, drew 37,625 for their home game against Birmingham. It ended 0-0. Brian Greenhoff gave Manchester United the lead at Wolves but Martin Patching and Mel Eaves hit back to give Wolves a 2-1 win. Wolves' success enabled them to jump out of the bottom three places, leaving West Ham to go down instead. The Hammers lost 0-2 at home to Liverpool.

Watford, already Fourth Division Champions, finished with a 3-2 home win over Southport but they needed two penalties to achieve that.

15 years Ago:

We needed victory over Mansfield at The Abbey Stadium to be sure of promotion from the Fourth Division. A Mansfield win would have taken them up in our place. A crowd of 10,542 gathered here for the confrontation. Jim McCaffrey scored first for the Stags, and, though Ron Walton equalised, Dudley Roberts restored Mansfield's advantage. But we were level at half-time thanks to a Bobby Ross penalty. Walton scored the goal that won promotion in the 61st minute.

Bolton made sure of the Second Division Championship by defeating Brentford 2-0 at Burnden Park. Second half goals from John Byrom and Peter Nicholson did the trick.

Denis Law converted two penalties for Manchester City but they were beaten 2-3 at home by Crystal Palace. But Palace were already doomed to relegation.

Colin Waldron's goal gave Burnley a 1-1 draw at Preston to ensure that they would go up as Second Division Champions.

In the F.A. Challenge Trophy Final, non league clubs, at Wembley, Scarborough beat Wigan Athletic 2-1 after extra-time.

BOLTON WANDERERS

by Tony Pullein

Bolton's failure in last seasons play-offs doomed the club to its first ever spell of Fourth Division football. But the Wanderers have made a spirited recovery and they are currently excellently placed to win one of the three certain promotion places. At worst they should finish among the top six to figure in the play-offs again.

Bolton have won away games in the League at Hereford (3-0), Newport (1-0), Peterborough (4-0), Stockport (2-1), Carlisle (2-0) and Leyton Orient (2-1) and drew at Scunthorpe (1-1), Rochdale (2-2), Hartlepool (0-0), Halifax (0-0) and Exeter (1-1). They were beaten at Scarborough (0-4), Torquay (1-2), Darlington (0-1), Burnley (1-2), Colchester (0-3), Tranmere (0-2), Crewe (1-2), Wolves (0-4), Swansea (0-1) and Cardiff (0-1).

The Bolton side is likely to be selected from:

DAVE FELGATE (Goalkeeper). David is in his second spell with the club though he did not play in their League eleven during his first spell at Burnden Park. He played League soccer when loaned out to Rochdale, Crewe and Bradford City and he was eventually transferred to Lincoln in 1980. He held the first team job with the Imps for four and a half years then had loan spells with Cardiff and Grimsby before making a full transfer to Grimsby in 1985. He re-joined Bolton last season. David is a Wales international.

DEREK SCOTT (Defender). David is a former England schoolboy international who developed with Burnley in happier times. He made his debut for the Clarets in 1975 and went on to complete well over 300 senior appearances before moving on to Bolton in 1985.

MARK CAME (Defender). Mark was signed from Winsford United and earned his place at the Bolton side three seasons ago. He is now approaching his 150th League appearance.

DAVID SUTTON (Defender). David is a player with a wealth of experience. He started his professional career with Plymouth and enjoyed two seasons as a first teamer before transferring to Huddersfield in 1978. For six years he was a pillar at the heart of the Huddersfield defence until transferring to Bolton in 1984.

DEAN CROMBIE (Defender). Dean was signed from Grimsby last summer. He began his professional career with Lincoln City, making 33 League appearances before moving on to Grimsby in 1978. Last season he spent a loan period with Reading.

PAUL HUGHES (Defender). Paul joined the club as a trainee and made his League debut against Stockport in December.

NICK BROOKMAN (Midfield). Nick joined the club as a junior and made his League debut last season.

STEVE THOMPSON (Midfield). Steve developed in the junior teams and has been a fixture in the side for well over four years now.

GARY HENSHAW (Midfield). Gary emerged as a League player with Grimsby in 1983/84 and won a regular place last season. He joined Bolton last summer.

ANDY MAY (Midfield). Andy has been signed on loan from Huddersfield until the end of the season. He made his name with Manchester City, following his debut in 1981. Huddersfield signed him last summer.

STUART STORER (Midfield). Stuart began his League career with Mansfield in 1983/84 but later moved on to Birmingham where he was an occasional first teamer. Last season he was transferred to Everton but it is only since his transfer to Bolton in December that he has won a regular game in league soccer.

JULIAN DARBY (Midfield). Julian joined Bolton from school. He got his League chance two seasons back, winning a regular place last season.

ROBBIE SAVAGE (Midfield). Robbie joined the club from Bradford City during the early weeks of the season. He began as a Liverpool professional but didn't play in their first team. He spent most of the 1982/83 season on loan to Wrexham and was transferred to Stoke at the end of it. After only a few weeks at the Victoria ground, he moved on to Bournemouth where he quickly established himself in the senior side. Bradford signed him last season.

JOHN THOMAS (Forward). John rejoined Bolton last summer after leading Preston's scoring list with 28 goals last season. He now tops Bolton's list with 20. Once a junior player with Everton, John made his League debut whilst on loan to Tranmere in 1978/79. He later served Halifax on loan before initially signing for Bolton in 1980. Chester signed him in 1982 and he was their top scorer before joining Lincoln a year later. A top scorer for the Red Imps. John joined Preston in 1985.

TREVOR MORGAN (Forward). Trevor has become quite a wanderer since Bournemouth signed him from non-league Leytonstone in 1980. After making an early impression as a goalscorer, he was transferred to Mansfield in 1981, but within weeks, he was back at Dean Court. In 1983/84 he was the Cherries leading scorer with 15 goals, even though he moved on to Bristol City before the end of the campaign. In 1984 he was transferred to Exeter City but a year later he linked with Bristol Rovers, topping their goals list with 19 goals in his first season. Last season he moved back to re-join Bristol City, staying until joining Bolton last summer.

STEVE ELLIOTT (Forward). Steve had played only four League matches for Nottingham Forest when Preston paid a club record £95,000 fee to sign him in 1979. He was on three occasions their top scorer before transferring to Luton in 1984. Within weeks he was on the move again, joining Walsall where he remained until linking with Bolton in 1986.

PHIL NEAL PLOTS BOLTON REVIVAL

by Tony Pullein

Phil Neal took over as Bolton's player-manager in December 1985 after 11 glorious years with Liverpool. And, when he left Anfield, he could hardly have expected to taste some more Wembley atmosphere so soon. He was in the Bolton side that met Bristol City in the final of the Freight Rover Trophy in 1986.

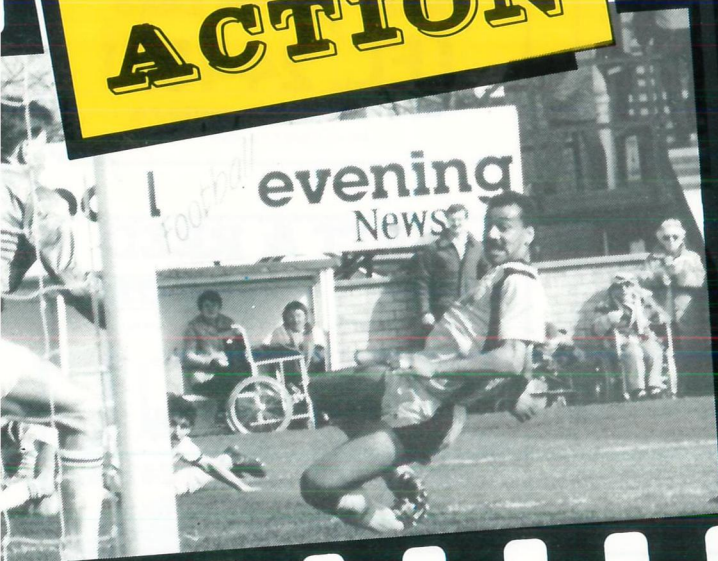

Sadly, last season he experienced the other extremes of football's emotions when Bolton were relegated to the Fourth Division for the first time in their history. Mr. Neal then retired as a player to concentrate upon management and he has produced a team that looks good enough to regain Third Division status at the first attempt.

He started his career with Northampton Town, often playing in midfield, and in 1972/73 he was their leading scorer. After six seasons in the Cobblers' senior team, he seemed destined for a career in the lower divisions of the Football League until Liverpool signed him in 1974 for £60,000.

It wasn't too long before he had established himself at right back and he played for England on 50 occasions. He was a member of each of Liverpool's four European Cup winning teams and he included seven League Championship medals among his large collection of trophies won at Anfield. He earned a reputation for his consistency and he once went eight seasons without missing a game.

When the time came for him to contemplate the future, he had hoped to have remained at Anfield on the coaching staff. But the opportunity arose for him to go straight into management with Bolton and the challenge was too good to turn down.

Fourth Division Scene

END OF THE ROAD FOR NEWPORT

Next week Newport County will disappear from the Football League for the last time. The Somerton Park club previously lost its League status in 1931 but regained its place a year later. This time, it seems, there will be no way back. Their 0-6 defeat at Bolton last Saturday made it mathematically impossible for Newport to avoid relegation. In reality, they had accepted their fate many months ago.

The club now faces two choices. It can do the expected thing by dropping into the GM-Vauxhall Conference — whose Champions will take their place in the Fourth Division next season — or it can bow to pressure from the F.A. of Wales to join the Welsh League. If Newport join the GMV they could well suffer further relegation next season as they have been forced to sell most of their experienced players. By joining the Welsh League, Newport could kill off any hope of ever again playing in the Football League.

The F.A. of Wales feel that Newport County's presence would enhance their case of having their League Champions accepted into the European Cup. At the moment the Welsh Cup winners are admitted to the European Cup Winners' Cup and Newport have been one of their most successful entrants. But UEFA argues that, as Wales' senior clubs have always played in the Football League, the Welsh League cannot be accepted as their national League. It is doubtful if UEFA could be persuaded to have a change of heart if Newport County should join the Welsh League. If Newport are not even good enough to hold their place in the Fourth Division of the Football League, how could they be expected to compete with the likes of Liverpool and Barcelona in the European Cup?

Newport's future looks pretty grim anyway. And, as costs in the GMV would be equally as high as they were in the Fourth Division because of the national travel involved, Newport may prefer to play in the more compact Welsh League. Whatever happens, it is unlikely that Newport would make such a quick recovery as did Lincoln City who were relegated from the Fourth Division last season. Lincoln possessed several valuable players and, by wheeling and dealing in the transfer market, they made a handsome profit. As a result of their early success in non-league football, Lincoln's attendances have more than DOUBLED. The drop into non-league Football for Lincoln has been a distinct advantage! Lincoln are currently well placed to win the Championship of the GMV and regain their Fourth Division place next season.

Newport simply have not got the resources to have the chance of emulating Lincoln. The Welsh club has been running down all season. They started with player-manager John Lewis in charge, but after the team had won only one of its opening 11 League games he was sacked. Charlton coach Brian Eastick took charge, even though he knew he faced a near impossible task. 'We just did not have the players and those we had were not properly fit,' he said. 'All I could do was to improve their fitness and their discipline and call up several trainees to fill the gaps in the team.' When Newport won two of their first four games under Mr. Eastick, there was just a flicker of hope. But it didn't last and in March, he, too, left the club to help their economy drive. Long serving physiotherapist David Williams took over. But Newport continued to be outplayed week by week. They have lost their last seven matches, conceding 30 goals in the process. In March the new Chairman declared that the club's only hope of survival was for local businesses to rally round and for more people to attend their matches. But only 988 turned up for their recent League match with Peterborough United.

The local council reversed its decision to back the club financially and, instead, threatened to sue them for arrears in rent! When Newport were in a similar financial position a few years ago, they sold Somerton Park to the council who rented it back to them. Unlike Lincoln, Newport do not own their own ground as an asset. Newport, in fact, appear to have almost no assets at all.

It's sad to watch the demise of a club that initially joined the League back in 1920. For most of the time life has been a struggle for Newport County, and, when they did find success by winning the Championship of the Third Division (South) in 1939, war broke out, and, when they eventually took their place in Division Two in 1946, the team had gone and they were immediately relegated. That, then, was the high spot for Newport County. Next week they will slump to their lowest when they bow out of the League forever.

ON THE TABLE

We are again approaching the end of another long season, we can reflect on a season which saw, for us more than its fair share of what I call chronic injuries.

Chronic injuries to me are injuries that keep players out for more than four weeks and as I have said these have been numerous, if you remember at one stage we had four players in plaster at one time, then you can realise the problem our manager has had to face.

However, we can be thankful that we have had very few strains and pulls, which keep players out for the game, this I put down to our religious pre-training and pre-match warm ups, we make the players perform, obviously players do feel stresses, but it is usually a re-assurance from the staff that helps him over it.

Let us hope that next season we can improve on the chronic injuries and help get a more settled team.

Many thanks for cheque received today for £350. I'm sorry I was out on Saturday, I always eagerly await the phone call, but it was certainly my lucky weekend. I became a grandmother for the first time, a much awaited grandson and then arriving home to find I had won Lifeline was super.

Again many thanks. I have been a United supporter for many years, a Season Ticket Holder for about 12 years, its usually great entertainment.

Yours sincerely, S. MOIR.
